DETAILED ACTION

CLAIMS PRESENTED

Claims 1-85 are presented.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments have been fully considered. While the arguments are persuasive as to the extent of showing that some of the argued features may not be shown by the prior art, the arguments brought new considerations.

Because Applicant has not been afforded any fair chance to discuss these new considerations, the prosecution is reopened and the case is made NON-final.

CLAIM REJECTIONS

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-85 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as failing to set forth the subject matter which applicant(s) regard as their invention. Evidence that claims fail(s) to correspond in scope with that which applicant(s) regard as the invention can be found in the Appeal Brief filed 10/26/2005. In that paper, applicant has stated that the "anonymous identity" of the user is not same as an alias (such as at page 13, the first paragraph) and that "contact directed to the anonymous identity of the user" is not same as selecting articles for a user to view (also at page 13), and these two statements indicate that the invention is different from what is defined in the claim(s) because the claims merely recite "anonymous identity." If an alias and a selective viewing for a user are not "anonymous identity", then claims fail(s) to correspond in scope with that which applicant(s) regard as the invention.

Until now, the phrase "anonymous identity" had been interpreted to be a mere alias to provide an anonymous identity (e.g., a screenname in an America On Line account). In such situation, an alias is used and articles or items are selectively handled for a user to view – thereby creating an anonymous identity. Clearly, Applicant does not mean this. What does Applicant mean?

Conclusion

The art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The art disclosed general background.
